

Sala Kryszek Art & Writing Competition 2020 ART GUIDELINES

Deadline: TBD

A full range of 2-D techniques and materials are permissible including paints, charcoal, pencil, oil and chalk pastels and photography. For submission, all works must be backed securely or mounted for artistic appeal.

- Entries must address the prompt, and include an artist statement of one to two sentences describing the connection between Holocaust history and the artwork. Artist statements should be attached to the Registration Form, not to the artwork itself, and may not include the artist's name. Make sure the artist's statement is written in 12pt Times New Roman.
- Entries must be securely backed or mounted for artistic appeal and the title of the artwork must appear clearly on the back of the artwork. The Registration and Release forms must be paper-clipped to the art. Do not staple or tape the forms to the art.
- Entries must be titled, and the title must appear on the Registration Form and the Release Form.
- Entries may be NO LARGER than 18" x 24", may not be more than ¼ inch thick, and any chalk, charcoal, or pastels must be sprayed with a fixative.
- OJMCHC reserves the right to publish and/or display all submitted works. Any submission that does not have accompanying, signed Registration and Release Forms will be automatically disqualified.
- All entries must be the original work of the student.
- Entries must be received by OJMCHC by April 8, 2020.
- Entries will be available for pickup following their display at OJMCHC and other exhibit venues. Please contact OJMCHC to arrange for pickup. Entries not claimed by November 1, 2020 will be discarded without exception.
- Art entries are limited to one entry per student. Students may also submit one entry to the writing category.
- Grand Prize winners will be asked to write a letter of thanks to the Kryszek family detailing their visit to the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. upon their return.
- Grand Prize and First Place winners will be asked to speak briefly about their work at the award ceremony on Sunday, May 3, 2020.

Entries that do not address the prompt or meet the above guidelines will automatically be disqualified.
